

Reading Walkthrough Summary

Teacher: Sally Jones

Date Observed: 02/15/2011

Subject: Reading

Time: 3rd Hour

Observer: Bill Craig

Students present: 18

Perceptions

I saw many good things when I visited your classroom. My thoughts are summarized below.

- Friendly, welcoming classroom atmosphere.
- Students appropriately engaged in meaningful activities.
- Meaningful recitation from all students.
- Teacher skillfully guiding instruction.
- Skillful classroom management.
- Comprehension checks at a variety of levels.
- Routine use of context clues.
- Systematic vocabulary instruction in meaningful context.
- Skillfully phrased follow-up questions.
- IEP documents reflected in the daily instructional plan.

Reflections

I would encourage you to reflect on those items listed below and consider what improvements, if any, you should consider.

- No recommendations at this time.
- Keep up the good work.
- Student engagement.
- Daily student recitation.
- Classroom management.
- Classroom decor.
- Frequent, high quality feedback to students.
- Questioning technique.
- Appropriately differentiated instruction.
- Instruction must reflect the accommodations expressed in IEP documents.

Comments

It is a pleasure to watch a masterful teacher at work.

Bill Craig
Principal

Date